

I am adamantly opposed to the use of cellular telephones during commercial airline flights. We are subjected to WAY too much cell phone conversation in public venues without requiring that we be subjected to them in a closed environment where we cannot escape the ongoing mindless cell phone babble.